Explanatory Notes

Item 1—Financial statements and reports

The Financial Report, Directors' Report and Auditor's Report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2021 will be presented at the AGM (as required by section 317 of the Corporations Act).

While these reports will already have Board approval (meaning they won't require formal member approval), members will be invited to ask questions, make comments and note these reports at the AGM.

Item 2—Remuneration Report

The Remuneration Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2021 is set out in the Annual Report 2021, as part of the Directors' Report. This report will be available on australianunity.com.au/companyperformance from mid-late September.

The Remuneration Report includes:

- a) an explanation of the Company's policy for determining the remuneration of Directors and Executives;
- b) a discussion of the relationship between that policy and the Company's performance; and
- c) details of the performance conditions associated with the remuneration of Directors and Executives.

As outlined in the Corporations Act, the vote on this resolution is advisory only – the result will not be binding on the Directors or the Company. However, members will be given a reasonable opportunity to ask questions and make comments on the report, and the Board will take the outcome of the vote into consideration when reviewing remuneration practices and policies.

Directors' recommendation

The Directors unanimously recommend that Eligible Guardian Members vote in favour of the resolution in Item 2.

Item 3—Electing Directors

Rule 4.3(a) of the Company's constitution states that Directors are elected for a term of three years.

Su McCluskey has served as a Director for the past three years without re-election. She will retire at the end of the AGM and offer herself for re-election. Her profile is set out following this section.

Greg Willcock has also served as a Director for the past three years without re-election. He will retire at the end of the AGM and offer himself for re-election. His profile is set out following this section.

This resolution will involve two separate votes, each recorded as a separate item in the minutes:

- a) the first vote, to re-elect Su McCluskey as a Director; and
- b) the second vote, to re-elect Greg Willcock as a Director.

Directors' recommendation

The remaining Directors, who are not up for re-election as part of this item, support these elections and recommend that Eligible Guardian Members vote in favour of re-electing Su and Greg.

Note: these resolutions are proposed as ordinary resolutions. These resolutions will only be passed if at least 50 percent of the votes—cast by or on behalf of Eligible Guardian Members who are present at the AGM (including those who have appointed proxies who are present at the meeting) and who are entitled to vote—are cast in favour of the resolution.

Item 4 – Non-executive director remuneration cap

At the 2017 AGM of the Company, the Company's members approved a resolution setting an aggregate limit of non-executive director remuneration at $1,485,000 per financial year, regardless of the number of directors, with the Board to decide how that aggregate remuneration is to be apportioned between directors.

Since the approval of the resolution at the 2017 AGM of the Company, the total annual remuneration paid to non-executive directors has remained within the $1,485,000 aggregate limit.

In the four years since the 2017 resolution, the Australian Unity Group (Group) has grown substantially and has become significantly more complex. This is evidenced, in part, by the progression of the Herston Quarter development, and the continued investment in social infrastructure projects and the growth of the home care and retirement and aged care businesses.

The legislative and regulatory environment that the Group operates in has also become increasingly complex, as evidenced by the outcomes of various Royal Commissions that impact the Group's businesses. As such, this has required the Group to implement an array of complex legislative changes, which has significantly increased directors' time-commitment and the number of meetings they are required to attend. Management of the COVID-19 pandemic, in particular ensuring that the Group's aged care residents are kept safe, has also increased the role and time commitment of directors.

The proposed increase to the non-executive director remuneration cap:

- a) provides the Board with added flexibility to appoint an additional director, allowing the Group to further enhance its 'best practice' governance models;
- b) ensures that the Board has the right levels of diversity, skill and experience appropriate for the breadth and depth of the Company; and
- c) ensures that the Board is adequately positioned to review, and respond to, emerging risks presented to the Group.

Under Rule 4.14(a) of the Company's constitution, this aggregate limit may only be raised with approval of members at a general meeting.

Note: this resolution is proposed as an ordinary resolution. This resolution will only be passed if at least 50 percent of the votes—cast by or on behalf of Eligible Guardian Members who are present at the AGM (including those who have appointed proxies who are present at the meeting) and who are entitled to vote—are cast in favour of the resolution.

Directors' recommendation

The Directors unanimously recommend that Eligible Guardian Members vote in favour of the resolution in Item 4.

Item 5 – Amendment of the Company's constitution

At the 2019 AGM, members approved the amendment of the constitution to provide for the issue of mutual capital instruments (MCI).

In December 2020, the Company issued $120 million of MCIs which are listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX:AYUPA). Each MCI was issued for $100.

The Company is now seeking member approval to amend the constitution to provide ongoing flexibility to the Company to issue future MCIs within the same series of MCIs.

Rule 3.4(f) of the constitution currently states:

The Board may determine and set out in the terms of issue of an MCI that the MCI confers on its holder the right in a winding up of the Company to payment in priority to the holders of ordinary shares and to Non Shareholder Members of:

- (1) the amount of any dividend accrued but unpaid on the MCI at the date of winding up; and
- (2) any additional amount specified in the terms of issue, limited to the issue price of the MCI.

The Company is seeking to delete the reference to 'issue price' and replace it with a reference to 'face value'. The amendment would be to Rule 3.4(f)(2) of the constitution as follows:

- (2) any additional amount specified in the terms of issue, limited to the ~~issue price~~ face value of the MCI.

The MCIs on issue have a face value of $100 and an issue price of $100. The face value is used to calculate the dividend payable on MCIs and is the amount that an MCI holder is entitled to receive as a capital payment on MCIs if the Company was ever wound up. The terms of the MCIs (Terms) provide that future issues of MCIs may be at an issue price that is more or less than face value. This flexibility was included in the Terms to allow the Company to make future issues of MCIs at an issue price which has regard to the then current trading price of MCIs.

Since listing on ASX, MCIs have traded above their issue price and face value at a price between $104.50 and $110.01, based on ASX closing prices. Any future issue of MCIs is likely to be at a discount to the then current trading price and may be at an issue price that is more or less than the face value of MCIs.

Without the amendment to the constitution, the Company would not have the flexibility to issue MCIs at less than face value in response to the MCI trading price, as those MCIs would be entitled to receive face value which would be greater than the issue price, as a capital return, if the Company was ever wound up.

If the amendment to the constitution is not made, the Company will still be able to issue a new series of MCIs that would trade on ASX however, that series of MCIs would be separate to the existing MCIs and would trade at a separate price on ASX. The Company considers that having separate series of MCIs in that circumstance would be a less efficient way of raising capital, would be more complex to administer and may confuse investors.

Additionally, approval is sought to amend Rule 5.5(f) of the constitution to make it unambiguously clear that the Company is permitted to hold wholly virtual general meetings. This amendment is proposed due to the uncertainty caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and to give the Company further flexibility to hold wholly virtual general meetings if considered appropriate.

If Eligible Guardian Members pass Item 5, the amendment to the constitution referred to above will take effect at the conclusion of the 2021 AGM.

Note: this resolution is proposed as a special resolution. This resolution will only be passed if at least 75 percent of the votes—cast by or on behalf of Eligible Guardian Members who are present at the AGM (including those who have appointed proxies who are present at the meeting) and who are entitled to vote—are cast in favour of the resolution.

Directors' recommendation

The Directors unanimously recommend that Eligible Guardian Members vote in favour of the resolution in Item 5.
