Ideally positioned in close proximity to the Willandra Village Clubhouse and outdoor pool, this comfortable and inviting unit offers independent living with much sought-after, all-weather undercover access from the lock-up garage. With the living areas opening to a wide balcony with room for an outdoor setting overlooking the native bushland reserve bordering Cromer Creek, this soothing setting echoes with the sounds of birdlife, making it a truly special location. Two double size bedrooms include large, floor-to-ceiling built-in wardrobes and the master bedroom provides internal ensuite-style access to the bathroom. The generous galley style kitchen layout overlooks the property entry and features an adjacent internal laundry with a light and bright dining alcove. This character-filled home includes; reverse cycle air-conditioning, a polyurethane and stone kitchen with dishdraw dishwasher and stainless steel appliances, with quality fixtures and fittings throughout, new carpets and paint, window coverings and 24-hour emergency call assistance.
