Majestic English garden outlook from sunny balcony

Offering quality independent retirement living with the peace of mind provided from additional support, Mt Eymard's serviced apartments are centrally located in historic Eymard House and give residents easy access to the range of activities, dining and social areas. Brimming with natural morning light, this upper level apartment is close to the central elevator and is one of only two exclusive apartments to feature a sunny balcony presiding over some of the finest country garden views in the community. The spacious floorplan allows comfortable, full-size furnishings whilst a neat and tidy enclosed kitchenette provides easy snack preparation between mealtimes in the dining room. The safe, non-slip tiled bathroom is centrally heated for your comfort and has grab rails for your security and mobility plus an internal laundry connection if required. Contact Steven Berlyn on 0406 420 940 for more information.
