Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether you are a tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time you spend in a country, the location of your residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be a result of citizenship or residency.

If you have questions on how to define your tax residency status, please visit the OECD website (oecd.org) or speak to a professional tax adviser as we are not allowed to give tax advice.

Are you a tax resident of Australia? Yes No

Are you a tax resident in a country other than Australia? Yes No

Tax regulations require Australian Unity to establish the tax residency of investors. If you answered 'Yes' to being a tax resident of a country other than Australia, you must complete the Tax Residency Information Form available at australianunity.com.au/platinum and submit it with your application. Units cannot be issued to you until you have provided a completed Tax Residency Information Form.

Are you a Politically Exposed Person? Yes No

Please identify the source of your investable assets or wealth Gainful employment Inheritance/gift Financial investments

Business activity Superannuation savings Other – please specify

Identification documents

Anti-money laundering

Anti-money laundering legislation helps combat money laundering and financing terrorism.

If your financial adviser is assisting with your transfer they will assist you in providing the necessary identification documents prior to submitting the transfer.

If you are submitting your transfer directly (without the assistance of a financial adviser), please refer below to the information that should be provided with your transfer Form.

We need to identify the underlying owner of each investment. For example, a private company will need to provide supporting documentation to identify their directors and shareholders as well as the usual account opening information.

If you are an existing investor with Lifeplan and are making an additional investment using the same investor name, then you are not required to provide us with the required identification documents. However, we may, at our discretion, request these documents from you in an effort to comply with the anti-money laundering legislation.

Submitting your transfer Form without the assistance of a financial adviser

If you are submitting the Memorandum of Transfer Form directly, without having consulted with a financial adviser, you must submit certified copies of your identification documents with the Form

Certification of documents

Where your identification documents need to be certified, we suggest that the person certifying the document(s) for you use the following statement on the copy being certified:

'I certify this to be a true copy of [name of document], of [name of investor], the original of which was produced to me at the time of signing'.

The document must also be dated, and have the signature, printed name, occupation, employer and address of the person certifying the document.

Persons who may certify copies of original documents include:

- Officer with or authorised representative by an Australian Financial Services licence holder with two or more years of continuous service with one or more licensees
- Chartered Accountant, CPA or member of the National Institute of Accountants with two or more years of continuous membership
- Officer of a financial institution or finance company with two or more years of continuous service with one or more institutions or companies
- Permanent employee of the Australian Postal corporation with two or more years of continuous service, or someone who operates as an agent of the Australian Postal Corporation
- Police Officer
- A person who, under the law in force in a state or territory, is currently licensed or registered to practice as a: chiropractor, dentist, legal practitioner, medical practitioner, nurse, optometrist, pharmacist, physiotherapist, psychologist or veterinary surgeon
- Lawyer, magistrate, registrar of a Court, Justice of the Peace
- Notary Public (including persons authorised as a notary public in a foreign country).

A complete list of persons who may certify documents can be obtained from australianunity.com.au/platinum.
