

Announcement

Lifeplan Education Bond

1 October 2025

This announcement is issued by Lifeplan Australia Friendly Society Limited ABN 78 087 649 492, AFS Licence No. 237989, as the issuer of the Lifeplan Education Bond ('Lifeplan').

Living away from home allowance limit and maximum contribution limit (Effective 1 October 2025)

Living away from home allowance limit

The living allowance is a special type of education benefit that is only available to students living away from home.

Full-time students living away from home can currently withdraw a living allowance of up to $12,600 per calendar year without having to provide proof of expenditure.

We review this allowance annually and may change it with effect from 1 October each year to reflect changes in the cost of living away from home.

Maximum contribution limit

The maximum contribution(s) that can be made for each student or child is currently $896,700 in total.

We review this limit annually and may increase it with effect from 1 October each year to reflect rises in the cost of education. If the limit is increased, you can make additional contributions up to the new limit.
