DPF Unitholder Meeting deferred to 11 February 2022

On 6 December 2021, Australian Unity Property Limited (AUPL), as Responsible Entity of Australian Unity Diversified Property Fund (DPF) announced its intention to seek orders from the NSW Supreme Court to adjourn the DPF Unitholder Meeting relating to the proposed merger of DPF with Australian Unity Office Fund (ASX: AOF) to create 'Australian Unity Property Fund' (AUPF) (the Proposal).

DPF can now confirm that the NSW Supreme Court has made orders approving the adjournment of the DPF Unitholder Meeting which is now proposed to be held on 11 February 2022. AOF is expected to also adjourn its own Unitholder Meeting in relation to consideration of the Proposal to 11 February 2022.

As announced previously, AOF is currently exploring various capital management initiatives and is actively engaging with its unitholders in relation to the Proposal. Upon AOF's resolution of these various items under consideration, and assessment by DPF and AOF of their impact (if any) on the Proposal, DPF intends to provide appropriate disclosure as it relates to any changes (if any) to the Proposal, or any changes in the financial, operations or strategy of DPF, AOF or AUPF arising from the resolution of these matters which are material to the consideration of the Proposal by DPF unitholders.

Accordingly, a Supplementary Unitholder Booklet, including any updated disclosure as well as a more detailed revised transaction timetable, is expected to be drafted and despatched to all DPF Unitholders ahead of the revised date for the DPF Unitholder Meeting.
