AUFM Board's Recommendation

The AUFM Board has considered NorthWest's most recent proposal of $2.70 per Wholesale Unit and believes that it is not in the best interests of AUHPT unitholders.

The Board believes that NorthWest's proposal materially undervalues AUHPT, having regard to the current and expected future value of the portfolio and the benefits it could deliver to a potential acquirer. Other factors considered by the Board include the nature of AUHPT investors and their desire for long-term returns, the tax implications, and their ability to re-invest proceeds in comparable assets with a similar risk and return profile. AUHPT's near-term acquisition and development pipeline of over $1bn, also offers the potential for future upside for unitholders. Further information on AUFM's position is available on our website australianunity.com.au/wealth/northwest-proposal.
