

Empowering your future

Join a Graduate Program
with you at its heart

We seek future leaders for our program designed for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander graduates. Created for you, with the support of business mentors, a buddy system and People Leaders, we will provide the tools for you to achieve your goals and make a positive difference.

At Australian Unity, we want to empower your career. This exciting opportunity lets you focus your career in one of two streams – IT or Wealth and Capital Markets.

- IT graduates will get to work on cutting-edge projects that leverage the latest advancements in digital solutions. You will encounter a diverse range of real-world technologies and methodologies.
- Business, Law, or Finance graduates will get to work at the forefront of ethical investing and sustainable financial practices. A landscape ripe with opportunities for learning and growth, where you can make a tangible impact.

And the best part? This is a permanent offer of employment!

So, if you want to shape the future of healthcare, finance, and community services, come join us. You'll create a strong network of supportive coworkers, mentors, and leaders who will be there for you throughout your journey. Plus, you'll show off your skills in an organisation committed to Real Wellbeing.

Choosing Australian Unity

If you chose Australian Unity, you'll join an organisation dedicated to inclusion and reconciliation, a workplace where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees feel valued, respected, and empowered.

With culturally sensitive support, mentorship programs, and career development opportunities, Australian Unity supports initiatives to close the gap and promote social equity. Our Employee Reference Group (ERG) Ngawiyala is an employee-led guidance and action group for employees, contributing to an inclusive organisation that our employees say is 'a great place to work'.

Working at Australian Unity allows employees to make a meaningful impact and contribute to a broader movement towards Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander empowerment and social justice. To learn more about how we empower reconciliation, visit australianunity.com.au/rap

About Us

At Australian Unity, we want people to thrive and achieve that by being bold, warm and honest in everything we do.

With over 180 years of history, we are a member owned wellbeing company, that has made a real difference to the communities we work in.

Today, we continue to grow, investing in social infrastructure, healthcare, and financial products to further unlock the Real Wellbeing of all Australians.

Real Wellbeing spans quality of life across several areas: future security, safety, community connectedness, personal relationships, health, and standard of living.
