

How to read your 2023 Private Health Insurance Tax Statement

Private Health Insurance Tax Statement 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023

A copy of your statement will be stored in Online Member Services. Visit australianunity.com.au/memberservices

Keep this statement - Use the following information to complete your 2023 income tax return

Important changes to rebate income thresholds effective 1 July 2023.

The table below provides details of your 2022-23 private health insurance policy. If your policy has more than one Private Health Insurance Incentive Beneficiary, this statement will only display your share amounts.

The Australian Government determines the way the rebate is calculated and applied to premiums. Rebate percentages are adjusted on 1 April each year. If you paid premiums for your policy before and on or after 1 April, the table below will contain at least two lines of information. Where more than one line of information has been provided, the information from each line must be entered separately at the corresponding labels on the income tax return at Private health insurance policy details.

Important - From 1 July 2023, new rebate income thresholds will apply. If you are affected by these changes, please update your details in our Online Member Services or contact us on 13 29 39 for assistance. For more information on these changes, visit privatehealth.gov.au/health_insurance/surcharges_incentives/insurance_rebate.htm

B Australian Unity's unique fund ID code is AUF.

J Your share (for taxation purposes) of the total amount paid for your health insurance policy this financial year.

K Your share of the rebate you have already received (if applicable) this financial year.

L Australian Tax Office code representing your age based rebate entitlement.

You will need to nominate a tax claim code when completing the Private health insurance policy details section of your tax return. Read the tax return instructions to determine the tax claim code appropriate for your situation.
